INCOME-TAX

Punjab, Pepsu, Himachal Pradesh and Bilaspur

RETURN OF TOTAL INCOME AND OF TOTAL WORLD
INCOME OF THE PREVIOUS YEAR FOR ASSESS-
MENT IN THE YEAR COMMENCING ON THE 1ST
APRIL 1954.

In pursuance of sub-section (1) of Section 22 of the Indian Income Tax Act, 1922 (XI of 1922), notice is hereby given to EVERY PERSON whose total income during the previous year exceeded the maximum amount not chargeable to income-tax to furnish within sixty five days from the date of publication of this Notice a return in the prescribed form and verified in the prescribed manner setting forth (along with such other particulars as are required by the said form) his total income and total world income during that year.

The return so furnished should include in Sec. D of the prescribed form particulars of any income which is not considered liable to tax for any reason whatsoever. If this is done, the income so disclosed would not be considered to have been concealed even if in the assessment it is held to be liable to tax.

A copy of the prescribed form will be supplied free of charge to any person who, for the purpose of complying with this notice applies at my office.

Every such person is further advised to ensure compliance with this notice, since any failure without reasonable cause to furnish the return required by this notice, or failure without reasonable cause to furnish it within the time allowed or in the manner required will entail a penalty not exceeding one and a half times the tax payable.

PLACE OF ASSESSMENT :—Under the provisions of Section 64 of the said Act where an assessee carries on a business, profession or vocation at any place he shall be assessed by the Income-tax Officer of the area in which that place is situate, or where the business profession or vocation is carried on in more places than one by the Income-tax Officer of the area in which the principal place of business, profession or vocation is situate, and in all other cases an assessee shall be assessed by the Income-tax Officer of the area in which he resides.

Provided that where an Income-tax Officer has been specifically empowered to assess certain classes of income and certain persons or class of persons, the assessment of such persons and such income will be made by the Income-tax Officer so empowered.

NON RESIDENTS :—(i) Those who are not assessed through Statutory agents under section 43 and who have any income for direct assessment (i.e., income from house property, interest etc.), will be assessed by the Income-tax Officer of the Circle in which the greater part of the assessable income arose in the assessment year 1939-40 or in the first year of assessment, whichever year is later : provided that the same officer shall have jurisdiction for subsequent years so long as some income for direct assessment (not necessarily the greater part) continues to arise within his jurisdiction.

(ii) Those who are assessed through Statutory agents under section 43 of the Indian Income-tax Act 1922, whether their income arises in a single State or in more than one State, will be assessed by the Income-tax Officer having jurisdiction over the area in which the Statutory agent carries on the business by reason of which income-tax is chargeable in his name under section 42 or where he resides, as the case may be.

Uttar Pradesh and Vindhya Pradesh

RETURN OF TOTAL INCOME AND OF TOTAL WORLD INCOME OF THE PREVIOUS YEAR FOR ASSESSMENT IN THE YEAR COMMENCING ON THE 1ST APRIL, 1954.

In pursuance of sub-section (1) of Sec. 22 of the Indian I-Tax Act, 1922 (XI of 1922), notice is hereby given to EVERY PERSON whose total income during the previous year exceeded the maximum amount not chargeable to incometax to furnish within sixty-five days from the date of publication of this Notice a return in the prescribed form and verified in the prescribed manner setting forth (along with such other particulars as are required by the said form) his total income and total world income during that year.

The return so furnished should include in Sec. D of the prescribed form particulars of any income which is not considered liable to tax for any reason whatsoever. If this is done, the income so disclosed would not be considered to have been concealed even if in the assessment it is held to be liable to tax.

A copy of the prescribed form will be supplied free of charge to any person who, for the purpose of complying with this notice, applies at my office.

Every such person is further advised to ensure compliance with this notice, since any failure without reasonable cause to furnish the return required by this notice, or failure without reasonable cause to furnish it within the time allowed or in the manner required will entail a penalty not exceeding one and a half times the tax payable.

PLACE OF ASSESSMENT.—Under the provision of Sec. 64 of the said Act where an assessee carries on a business, profession or vocation at any place he shall be assessed by the Income Tax Officer of the area in which that place is situate, or where the business profession or vocation is carried on in more places than one by the Income Tax Officer of the area in which the principal place of business, profession or vocation is situate, and in all other cases an assessee shall be assessed by the Income Tax Officer of the area in which he resides.

Provided that where an Income Tax Officer has been specially empowered to assess certain classes of income and certain persons, or class of persons, the assessment of such persons and such income will be made by the Income Tax Officer so empowered.

NON-RESIDENTS.—(i) Those who are not assessed through statutory agents under Sec. 43 and who have any income for direct assessment (i.e. income from house property, interest etc.), will be assessed by the Income Tax Officer of the Circle in which the greater part of the assessable income arose in the assessment year 1939-40 or in the first year of assessment, whichever year is later; provided that the same officer shall have jurisdiction for subsequent years so long as some income for direct assessment (not necessarily the greater part) continues to arise within his jurisdiction.

(ii) Those who are assessed through Statutory agents under Sec. 43 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, whether their income arises in a single State or in more than one State, will be assessed by the Income Tax Officer having jurisdiction over the area in which the Statutory Agent carries on the business by reason of which income-tax is chargeable in his name under Sec. 42 or where he resides, as the case may be.
